

Our DT project this term has been about games:

“Design and make a game that uses recycled materials and /or teaches other people about reducing, reusing and recycling.”

Can you make a game and play it with your family?

Here are some ideas we looked at in class. Think carefully about the best materials for the job!

Have fun!

Our DT project this term has been about games:

“Design and make a game that uses recycled materials and /or teaches other people about reducing, reusing and recycling.”

Can you make a game and play it with your family?

Here are some ideas we looked at in class. Think carefully about the best materials for the job!

Have fun!